You were an Australian resident for tax purposes in 2023-24 if you were physically present in Australia for 183 days or more during the income year (1 July 2023 to 30 June 2024). Count every day you were in Australia, including days of arrival and departure. If you were present for fewer than 183 days, answer No.

Notes to question 12

Total income is the sum of your annual salary and your interest income.
